

Community Behavioral Health: Provider Notification
Connectivity Loss
February 22, 2017

Due to a mishap related to construction outside our building, we have temporarily lost connectivity to the City, preventing providers from submitting EDI claims or receiving response files, authorization reports, and other files received through the EDI Browser. We will update you tomorrow, as we receive more information.