

2024 Pay-for-Performance Behavioral Health Screening Orientation

Understanding that most persons initially interact with the behavioral health system by way of mental health outpatient services, the Health Promotions unit of DBHIDS encourages providers to offer Check-Ups from the Neck-Up to community members who may be struggling in silence.

To encourage mental health and ASAM outpatient providers to actively connect with the community by offering behavioral health screenings, the Pay-for-Performance (P4P) program of CBH offers an award to providers that meet certain criteria while participating in a screening event. Please join us for this special orientation and training:
